Non-Profit Use

2018-2019 School Year & Summer 2019

Dear PS9 Families,

Throughout the school year and during the summer, PS9 may wish to use your child's photograph and/or, film, video tape or school-related work for promotional and educational publications and events, including newsletters, posters, postcards, brochures, the school website, community fairs and other special Board of Education events. We may also wish to submit your child's photograph or student work to accompany stories about our school and students in newspapers and other media, when these opportunities arise.

Before your child's photograph and/or student work can be used by the school or by the media, you must give permission. Please sign and return this form stating that PS9 has your permission to use your child's photograph and/or student work for these purposes.

Thank you for your cooperation!

Your Partner In Education,

Mrs. Sandra D'Avilar,
Principal
